HOW TO DEAL WITH POST-ACGMUN DEPRESSION

World Health Organization has failed to combat the most infectious disease.. Post- ACGMUN depression...As people who have been victims of it plenty of times the past years, we decided to generously provide you with the most effective ways to get over it. We will not lie to you, the symptoms of the disease are chronic .. however, we know the best coping mechanisms

- 1. Stalk your former co-delegates on social media
 Not sure if this will actually let you get over your post MUN depression, though, it definitely is part of the process...
- 2. Binge watch a Netflix Series!
 Netflix destruction surely makes you get over things in the short term. Make sure to avoid watching Suits or any other law related series though.. You might associate Harvey Specter with your ACGMUN self...
- 3. Engage in a lot of shower fights
 The shampoo bottles are always the best opponents. The end of ACGMUN definitely left you with some unresolved arguments. Well
 , instead of letting them keep you up at night , we suggest you leverage your "right of reply" against all your conditioners.
